

At some point in the last 10 years, the telemarketers gained a hold over homeowners in the US. How? Via their ability to not only call private phone numbers at any hour of the day or night, but also to SELL private phone numbers to other telemarketers without the owner's permission. This is the US, right? Can you picture the founding fathers authorizing a scheme like this? Absolutely not. They believed in private freedoms. Give us back our peaceful homes and our private phones, P-L-E-A-S-E!
